After selling out the Domino Room in October for a show that featured the Bay Area band's front-to-back Americana recreation of Pink Floyd's Dark Side of the Moon

, Poor Man's Whiskey

is returning to Bend on

Saturday (3/13)

for another show at the same venue.

This time around, PMW is playing a show featuring its own

bluegrass-meets-classic-arena-rock

(yes, this is possible) numbers and will almost certainly draw a sizable crowd of their hardcore Bend fans. This is a good chance to see a band that's on the rise as of late with opening slots for Del McCoury and a five-night stand at the

, one of Australia's biggest music events.

So catch them now – before they go down under and get bigger than Men at Work.

Doors at 8pm. $12.50. 21 and up.
