As you'll see in this week's Sound Check column , there was plenty of music going on over the weekend. I know, I'm a little slow in posting this, but I caught some of the madness on video and wanted to make use of it.

Here's some footage of the raucous and exceptionally sweaty Friday night Hillstomp show at the Domino Room, as well as the massively awesome show from Dusty Rhodes and the River Band , who played their last show EVER in Bend at the Silver Moon. The band is calling it quits after an eight-year run, but thought they'd finish up with one last tour up the West Coast.

So yeah, here's the video, sports fans.
