If you were in Bend on Saturday night there were plenty of options for entertainment. Roller derby, people beating the crap out of each other, ska music, rock music; you name it, it was going on in town on Saturday.

We made it down to Silver Moon to catch the soulful (and dreamy) Eric Tollefson debut his new band The World's Greatest Lovers. The show was great and Eric announced they'd be playing a free, all ages show at on March 3 at 7pm. If you missed this show at the Moon, be sure to make it down to McMenamins, because Tollefson is a true musician, and well worth a piece of your free time.
