The Source Weekly's calendar editor/video magician Anne Pick took all the largely cattywompus video I shot during the three days of Bend WinterFest last weekend and quilted it into a nice little documentary.

Take a look and relive the joy that was WinterFest. By the way, we just got word from the WinterFest organizers who estimated that some 32,000 people visited the festival during the three days.
